The revision petition is brought against the order passed by the Election Tribunal directing a recount sought at the instance of the defeated candidate. The order contains no reason for ordering recount. Learned senior counsel appearing for respondent No.1 states on the instructions from the party who is present in Court that he will have no objection if there is a direction given to the Election Tribunal to pas a fresh reasoned order on the basis of evidence given already setting out the grounds on which the election may be required to be set aside or affirmed, as the case may be. The order already passed is quashed and the matter is remitted to the Election Tribunal to render fresh decision giving a reasoned order.

The revision petition is disposed of. The order be passed within a period of one month from the date of the receipt of the copy of the order.
