The Labour Court vide award dated 25.7.2001 ordered reinstatement of the workman-Rajinder Singh with continuity of service and 50% back wages. The Management challenged that award. From the paper-book we find that there is no order granting any stay of the operation of the impugned award. Learned counsel for the petitioner states that Rajinder Singh has since expired. He states that in view of the fact that there was no stay granted by the Hon'ble High Court staying the operation of the impugned award, the respondent must have been reinstated and 50% back wages paid to him. In this view of the matter, the writ petition has been rendered infructuous and the same is disposed of as such. However, liberty is given to the parties that if circumstances so exist, they may move an application in accordance with law.

Copy of the order be given to learned counsel for the parties.
