CORAM:- HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE AMOL RATTAN SINGH

Present: None for the appellant.

Mr.Rajesh Mehta, Additional Advocate General, Punjab.

AMOL RATTAN SINGH, J.

Pursuant to order dated 9.8.2016, Mr.Mehta, learned Additional Advocate General, Punjab, has submitted, on written instructions (in RSA No.772 of 1987), that as per the report of the General Manager-cum-District Industries Centre, Hoshiarpur, the appellant firm,i.e. Prem Walia B.K.O. is no longer in existence and the proprietor thereof, Sh.S.S.Walia, has also died, as has his wife about four months ago. There is no knowledge about their children. He further submits that as regards RSA No.756 of 1987, the appellant firm in this case also, is no longer in existence and both the partners in the firm have died and the brick-kiln which they were running is also in no longer existence.

As per report of the Registry, Sh. I.S. Bajwa, one of the counsel who had filed this appeal, was informed telephonically of the date of hearing but he is not present here. The other counsel through whom it was filed along with Sh.Bajwa, i.e. Sh.Santokh Singh Sahi, was not found in the Bar Room with his address no longer available. As per learned State counsel, on instructions of Ms.Seema, Block Level Extension Officer, Jalandhar, Sh.S.S.Sahi is no longer living in India.

In the aforesaid circumstances, this Court has no option but to dismiss these appeals for non prosecution.

Ordered accordingly.

A photocopy of this order be placed on the file of the other connected case.
