CORAM:- HON'BLE MR.JUSTICE RAJIV NARAIN RAINA

Present:- None for the petitioners.

Mr. Baldev Raj Mahajan, Senior Advocate with Mr. Abhinandan Pandhi, Advocate for respondent Nos.1 to 3.

RAJIV NARAIN RAINA, J. (Oral)

This order will dispose of CWP No.1420 of 2001 titled Ramesh

Chand Verma and others v. Haryana Urban Development Authority and others, CWP No.1421 of 2001 titled Balwinder Singh and others v. Haryana Urban Development Authority and others & CWP No.1422 of 2001 titled Ved Parkash and others v. Haryana Urban Development Authority and others.

Neither the petitioners have appeared nor their counsel when these cases were taken up for final disposal of the oldest cases on my regular board, as indicated in the note in the cause list of Court Room No.21 that adjournments will not be given, for the success of this drive to take up everyday five old cases to be decided before motion matters. I have therefore, heard the learned counsel for the respondents on the merits of the case and perused the record on the writ file. The necessary facts deserve notice.

The prayer in these petitions is for treating work-charge service as regular satisfactory service for grant of benefit of additional increments and higher standard pay-scales on completion of 8/18 and 10/20 years of service prior to the regularization towards the total span of service from the dates of their joining. Still further, the prayer is to grant them the benefit of Assured Career of Progression scales of pay as per the provisions of Haryana Civil Services (Assured Career Progression) Rules, 1998.

Work-charge service may count towards pension but additional increments and higher standard pay-scales are governed by policies of the Haryana Government which require regular satisfactory service for the benefits to be granted at the stages the scheme prescribes. Since work-
