AT CHANDIGARH

CRM-M No.10368 of 2016

Date of decision: 8th July, 2016

Kuldeep Kaur

... Petitioner

Versus

State of Punjab

... Respondent

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE FATEH DEEP SINGH

Present: Mr. L.S. Mann, Advocate for the petitioner.

Mr. C.S. Brar, Dy. Advocate General, Punjab
for the respondent/State.

FATEH DEEP SINGH, J. (ORAL)

Allegations of the prosecution in this anticipatory bail application in case FIR No.225 dated 15.11.015 registered at Police Station City Ferozepur under Sections 420/120-B IPC against the petitioner Kuldeep Kaur as spelled out by the State are that she is the owner of house and a landline telephone connection installed therein from which her son Gagandeep Singh and his co-accused Aakash Kumar used to make telephonic calls and duped the complainant Jatinder Singh along with his co-accused non-complainant Paramjit Singh of ₹8.00 lacs on the pretext of sending abroad.

Contentions of learned counsel for the petitioner that no role is attributed to the petitioner and merely because she happens to be owner of the house where the telephone is installed in her name is not ipso facto an attribution to her. The same could not be refuted by learned State counsel.

Appreciating the submissions of the two sides, apparently neither any allegation has been made against the petitioner nor any role has been attributed to her as per the own stand of the State.

In view thereof and in the light of orders passed earlier, the interim bail granted to the petitioner vide order dated 22.03.2016 is made absolute on the same terms and conditions till submission of report under Section 173 Cr.P.C. (challan). Thereafter, petitioner will be permitted to furnish regular bail bonds to the satisfaction of the trial Court.

The petition stands disposed off accordingly.
