

IN THE HIGH COURT OF PUNJAB AND HARYANA AT CHANDIGARH

(209)

CRM-M-11003-2016

Decided on: April 08, 2016.

Vijender

.... Petitioner

Versus

State of Haryana

..... Respondent

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE M.M.S. BEDI

Present: Mr. Munish Mittal, Advocate, for the petitioner.

Mr. C.S. Bakshi, Addl. A.G., Haryana.

Mr. R.K. Agnihotri, Advocate, for the complainant.

M.M.S. BEDI, J (ORAL)

The petitioner is husband of complainant Rubi. He is alleged to have given her severe beatings with iron rods and stick besides giving fist and kick blows.

Though the details of the injuries are not substantiated by sufficient medical evidence but the matrimonial cruelty is apparent on the face of the record showing that the petitioner has connived with a female, Khushboo, his co-accused, who has illicit relations with him and tortured the complainant.

The complainant appears to have been treated with cruelty on account of she having objected to the immoral act of the petitioner.

Learned counsel for the petitioner has submitted that the petitioner has been falsely implicated on the basis of vague allegations.

I have taken into consideration the contentions of learned counsel for the petitioner that the petitioner has been given beatings by the brothers of the complainant and that there is delay in lodging of FIR.

The said circumstances may constitute good grounds for grant of regular bail but no extraordinary exceptional circumstance are found to exist to grant the concession of pre-arrest bail to the petitioner.

The bail petition is dismissed.

Nothing said in this order will prejudice the right of the petitioner to seek concession of regular bail by surrendering before the Illaqa Magistrate or the investigating officer.
