Ajay Tewari, J (Oral)

The petitioner seeks grant of regular bail in case FIR No.86, dated 20.4.2015, registered under Sections 406, 420, 467, 468, 471, 201, 120-B of the IPC, at Police Station Sadar Narwana, District Jind, Haryana.

The allegations are that the petitioner duped innocent boys and took money from them on the pretext of getting them job in the Army.

Counsel for the petitioner has argued that the petitioner has now been in custody since 2.5.2015, the case is triable by the Magistrate and that the trial is no where near conclusion.

Learned DAG Haryana, on instructions from ASI Surrender, states that the petitioner is a resident of naxalite prone area and in case he is released on bail, he will jump bail and it would be very difficult to arrest him again. He has otherwise accepted the other factual submissions.

In the circumstances, without commenting upon the merits of the case, and keeping in view the period of custody already suffered by the petitioner, I do not deem it appropriate to deny the concession of regular bail to the petitioner. Bail to the satisfaction of the trial Court. While releasing the petitioner on bail, the trial Court shall insist on heavy surety to ensure that he does not misuse the concession of bail.

Petition stands disposed of.
