... Petitioner

v.

State of Punjab and another

... Respondents

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE A.B. CHAUDHARI

Present: Ms. Lovedeep Kaur, Advocate for Shri B.S. Bhalla, Advocate for the petitioner.

Ms. Rimpaljeet Kaur, Assistant Advocate General, Punjab.

Shri Harkaran Singh, Advocate for respondent No.2.

A.B. Chaudhari, J. (Oral):

Heard learned counsel for the rival parties in FIR No.52 dated 26.5.2013, registered under Sections 279, 337, 338, 427 IPC, Police Station Sadar Moga, in which the petitioner is being prosecuted.

Now the complainant as well as the accused person have arrived at a compromise Annexure P-2. Learned counsel for the complainant – respondent No.2, Shri Harkaran Singh, Advocate is present and states that the compromise has indeed been arrived at. He further states that the petitioner has compensated him so far as the medical treatment is concerned. The offence is regarding accident and some injury was received by the complainant.

In that view of the matter, since the parties have arrived at a compromise, there is no point in continuing with the prosecution. Hence, the petition is allowed and the FIR in question, by way of compounding of offences, along with all consequential proceedings is quashed.
