Prayer is for grant of anticipatory bail on behalf of accused Raj Kumar in case FIR No.93 dated 25.3.2016 under Section 306 IPC, PS City Sangrur.

As per version of the complainant-Balwinder Singh, his brother Rinku Singh (since deceased) was working as a Munim at a brick kiln and petitioner used to regularly take consignments of bricks allegedly on credit at the risk of his deceased brother and for non-payment of the amounts due, said Rinku Singh is alleged to have committed suicide leaving behind a suicide note.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that there is absolutely no allegation of any threat or pressure put on the deceased and even otherwise the petitioner had left the job of the brick kiln owner from where the consignment was lifted on credit.

Learned State counsel on instructions does not refute the factual contentions raised by the learned counsel for the petitioner. He, further submits that suicide note is yet to be sent to Handwriting Expert.
