Vide order dated 26.04.2013, learned counsel for the appellant was granted time to implead the LRs of the appellant - Smt. Para d/o Sh. Het Ram, for she was stated to have passed away.

Office report indicates that needful has not been done to date. However, learned counsel for the appellant submits that he has sent registered letters at the address of the appellant to comply with the order dated 26.04.2013, and pursue the matter. But none has responded thereto.

That being so, the appeal is dismissed for non-prosecution. However, if any interest, cause of action or dispute still survives, the heirs of the appellant shall be at liberty to move an appropriate application for restoration of the appeal and its decision on merit.
