The petitioner has approached this Court for grant of regular bail without first filing a petition for bail before the trial Court. Learned counsel for the petitioner has submitted that this Court has got jurisdiction to entertain an application for bail directly. It has been urged that the concurrent jurisdiction vests in Sessions Court or this Court to grant concession of regular bail.

After arguing for some time, learned counsel for the petitioner seeks permission to withdraw this petition with liberty to file a petition for regular bail before the trial Court at the first instance.

Disposed of as withdrawn with liberty to the petitioner to move an application for regular bail before the trial Court.

It is observed that withdrawal of this application will not be a bar for trial Court to consider and grant bail to the petitioner, if deemed appropriate.
