JITENDRA CHAUHAN.J.

This is a petition, under Section 482 Cr.P.C for issuance of a direction to respondent Nos.1 to 3 to protect the life and liberty of the petitioners at the hands of private respondent Nos.4 to 13 and further directing the respondents not to harass the petitioners.

The learned counsel for the petitioners states that all the private respondents have accepted the marriage and they have no objection in case, the present petition is allowed.

On the other hand, the learned counsel for the petitioners expresses his apprehension over the life and liberty of the petitioners.

The learned counsel for the petitioners states that an attempt was made on the life of the petitioners after making an assurance before the Court. The private respondents abducted the girl and she was produced before this Court. Therefore, both the petitioners were sent to the Protection Home.

Keeping in view the apprehension expressed by the learned counsel for the petitioners, the Superintendent of Police, Mewat, is directed to look into the threat perception of the petitioners and take all necessary steps to ensure that life and liberty of the petitioners is not jeopardised by the private respondents.

The petitioners were produced before the Court by the authorities of the Protection Home. Keeping in view the statement made by the private respondents, the petitioners are ordered to be released from Protection Home and they are at liberty to move to the place of their choice.

The petition stands disposed of.

A copy of this order be given to the learned State Counsel under the signature of Bench Secretary.
