Vs.

State of Punjab and another

.....Respondents

CORAM: HON'BLE MS. JUSTICE RITU BAHRI

Present:- Mr.Vikasdeep Singh, Advocate, for the petitioner.

Ms.Manpreet Dhaliwal, AAG, Punjab.

Mr.Vivek K.Thakur, Advocate, for respondent No.2.

RITU BAHRI, J. (ORAL)

Both the parties are present in Court.

Learned State counsel submits on instructions from ASI Har Prashad, that all the dowry articles have been recovered except one motorcycle.

Learned counsel for the complainant/respondent No.2 submits that after recovery of dowry articles, another list dated 10.03.2016 has been again submitted before the Women Cell.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that as per order passed in the petition filed by the petitioner under Section 9 of HMA, petitioner is paying Rs.5,000/- p.m. as maintenance to the child.

In view of the above and considering the fact that trial would take long time to its conclusion, the order dated 07.01.2016 granting interim bail to the petitioner is made absolute subject to surety of Rs.1 Lac handed over to the complainant/respondent No.2 by the investigating officer.

Disposed of.
