The petitioner is seeking regular bail in FIR No. 27 dated 08.02.2016 registered at Police Station Chherretta, District Amritsar under Section 306 IPC.

Learned State counsel submits that another FIR was registered under Section 306 IPC as the victim had committed suicide after three days of this incident.

Learned counsel for the petitioner contends that the petitioner is the husband and he is in custody since 13.02.2016. He further states that charge has been framed. He states that it was a run away marriage and a son was born and there was no earlier complaint. The counsel has referred to challan and states that the police had summoned the parents but they did not come as they were not happy with the marriage and it had appeared during investigation that a small fight had taken place that morning as the petitioner had refused to drop the child at the school which annoyed Ankita and she committed suicide by locking herself in a bedroom.

It appears that the version given in the challan is the version given by the petitioner side as the parents had not responded then the father of the girl had later levelled allegations. Ten witnesses out of 20 witnesses have already been examined. The trial is going at a fast pace. The allegations are serious. No case for bail is made out.

The petition is dismissed.
