RITU BAHRI, J. (ORAL)

The instant petition has been filed under Section 482 of the Code of Criminal Procedure for quashing of FIR No.389 dated 31.12.2012, for the offence under Section 498A IPC registered at Police Station Dinanagar along with all consequential proceedings arising therefrom, on the basis of compromise dated 16.03.2016 (Annexure P-2).

It was alleged by the complainant that since the beginning of the marriage, the behaviour of the petitioner and his family members was rude towards her. They were not satisfied with the dowry articles brought by her at the time of marriage. Besides, they used to illtreat and taunt her for bringing inadequate dowry. They were maltreating, torturing and beating the complainant/respondent No.2 with a view to compel her to bring more dowry from her parents as they were not satisfied with the quality and quantity of the dowry and article given by her parents. On this background, the FIR was registered.

between the petitioners and respondent No.2-Shallu Devi, vide compromise deed dated 16.03.2016 (Annexure P-2).

In compliance with the order dated 02.05.2016 passed by this Court, the parties got recorded their statements before the trial Court. Report from the JMIC, Gurdaspur, has been received in this regard. As per report, Shallu Devi-complainant and accused-petitioner appeared before the trial Court on 14.06.2016 for getting their statements recorded in support of the compromise. In this regard statements of complainant- Shallu Devi and accused-petitioner were recorded to the effect that they have compromised the matter and Shallu Devi-complainant has no objection if the present FIR is quashed against these accused. Statements of accused-petitioner were also recorded to the same effect. In view of separate statements of the parties, the Court is satisfied that the compromise is valid and genuine one.

Consequently, in view of the status report and the judgment of the Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of Madan Mohan Abbot vs. State of Punjab 2008(2) RCR (Criminal) 429, the law laid down by the Full Bench of this Court in the case of Kulwinder Singh and others Vs. State of Punjab and another 2007(3) RCR (Crl.) 1052, this Court is of the view that no useful purpose would be served in prolonging the litigation.

Accordingly, FIR No.389 dated 31.12.2012, for the offence under Section 498A IPC registered at Police Station Dinanagar, is quashed along with all consequential proceedings arising therefrom qua the petitioners.

The petition stands disposed of accordingly.
