M.M.S. BEDI, J. (ORAL)

Petitioner was member of unlawful assembly consisting of 100/150 which indulged in booth capturing. Challan qua the co-accused of the petitioner stands presented before the Court of competent jurisdiction. The petitioner was declared a proclaimed offender.

Pursuant to the interim orders, the petitioner has joined investigation. It appears that the prosecution agency intends to present supplementary challan against the petitioner.

This petition is disposed of with a direction that in case supplementary challan being presented against the petitioner, he shall be released on bail to the satisfaction of the trial Court. It is made clear that in case the petitioner evades appearance before the Court at the time of presentation of challan, this order will be deemed to have been cancelled. In order to ensure appearance of the petitioner at the time of presentation of supplementary challan, it is ordered that a written intimation will be sent to the petitioner at the address which will be supplied by the petitioner to the investigating officer within a period of seven days. In case of failure to supply the address or appear before the investigating office or the Court, this order will be liable to be cancelled.
