3. Whether the judgment should be reported in the Digest?

AJAY TEWARI, J. (Oral)

This petition has been filed under Section 439 Cr.P.C. for grant of regular bail to the petitioner in case F.I.R. No.129 dated 06.12.2015 registered under Section 306 read with Section 34 IPC at Police Station G.R.P. Rewari (as mentioned in the bail order dated 15.12.2015, however, in the FIR only P.S. Rewari is mentioned), District GRP Amabala Cantt.

As per the allegations the petitioner had beaten up his brother and as a result of which the deceased was under stress and he committed suicide and also left behind the suicide note in which he had mentioned that he was troubled by the petitioner and his other brother and that is why he had committed suicide.

Learned counsel for the petitioner has argued that the petitioner has now been in custody for almost six months and the trial is not likely to conclude in near future and there is no reason to deny bail to the petitioner.

Learned Deputy Advocate General has accepted the factual assertions made above.

Without commenting on the merits of the case and keeping in view the period of custody already suffered by the petitioner, I do not deem it appropriate to deny him the concession of bail.

Bail to the satisfaction of the trial Court.

Petition stands disposed of.

Since the main case has been decided, the pending criminal miscellaneous application, if any, also stands disposed of.
