JITENDRA CHAUHAN,J.

The present petition has been filed for grant of regular bail in case FIR No. 229 dated 13.11.2015 (Annexure P-1), under sections 307, 324, 323, 120-B, 148 read with Section 149, IPC, registered at Police Station, City Faridkot, District Faridkot.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is a student of B.A. final year in Barjindra College, Faridkot where the occurrence had taken place. He further submits that the complainant had altercation with co-accused, Sukhdeep Singh when all the students saw that Sukhdeep Singh was being attacked by outsiders. In the rescue action some injuries were received by the complainant at the hands of other students. Learned counsel for the petitioner further submits that the petitioner is innocent. He did not play any role in the occurrence.

On the other hand, learned Deputy Advocate General, Punjab, refuted the arguments advanced by learned counsel for the petitioner on the ground that all the accused formed unlawful assembly and while armed with deadly weapons, caused 25 injuries on various parts of body of the complainant.

I have heard learned counsel for the parties and have perused the record very carefully.

The petitioner was armed with sword. The petitioner caused injury on the right index finger of the complainant. The injury falls within the purview of grievous injury. Total 25 injuries were caused on the person of the complainant i.e. 03 injuries were on his head, 09 injuries were on his left leg, 09 injuries were on his left arm, 03 injuries were on his right arm and one injury on his right knee. 25 injuries collectively caused, were dangerous to life. So, keeping in view the gravity of offence, no ground is made out for grant of concession of bail. Hence, the bail application is dismissed.
