Official of the General Manager Haryana Roadways, Sonipat had put in appearance on 07.11.2016 and pointed out that the payment of Rs.3,057.84/- has already been made to the workman on 18.09.2000 on account of overtime he had put during his service and that no other amount on that account is due to the workman. The official had further stated that in view of this, the writ petition has been rendered infructuous.

Mr. Gurinder Pal Singh, Advocate for the respondent-workman had not put in appearance on post date. Notice was, again ordered to be issued to him with a further direction that a copy of the order dated 07.11.2016 be sent to the learned counsel. Counsel has been duly informed but he has not put in appearance.

In view of the above, this writ petition is disposed of having been rendered infructuous with liberty to the respondent-workman to get it revived in case of need.
