Rajan Gupta, J.(oral)

A report has been received from the court of Additional District and Sessions Judge, Gurgaon. According to same, out of 18 witnesses cited by the prosecution, 14 have been examined. It appears, trial is nearing its culmination.

Faced with this situation, learned counsel for the petitioner submits that he be allowed to withdraw the present petition with liberty to raise all the pleas before the trial court at the stage of final arguments.

Needless to observe that trial court would consider the pleas raised by the petitioner. In view of same, no other direction is necessary. Petition is dismissed as withdrawn with liberty as aforesaid.
