CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE M.M.S. BEDI

Present: Mr. G.P.S Bal, Advocate, for the petitioner(s) in all the petitions.

Mr. Vikas Malik, DAG, Haryana.

M.M.S. BEDI, J (ORAL)

This order will dispose of six petitions for grant of regular bail i.e. CRM-M-16376-2016 Vinod Vs. State of Haryana, CRM-M-16579-2016 Jai Lal Vs. State of Haryana, CRM-M-16586-2016 Kailash Vs. State of Haryana, CRM-M-16801-2016 Man Singh Vs. State of Haryana, CRM-M-16805-2016 Jeet Singh Vs. State of Haryana and CRM-M-16813-2016 Tej Parkash Vs. State of Haryana.

The petitioners have been in custody w.e.f November, 2014 in a case registered against the petitioners and others alleging that they being followers of Baba Rampal had made attempt to obstruct the police officials seeking execution of the warrants of arrest, by sitting outside the main gate of the Aashram of Baba Rampal, as a result of which many police officials received injuries. Besides this, few persons have also died. A large number of accused around 943 are involved in the present case.

With the assistance of learned counsel for the petitioners, learned State counsel and SI Satbir Singh, I have gone through the police file and appreciated the specific role attributed to the petitioners. Vinod Kumar, being one of staunch follower of Baba Rampal, allegedly threw stones at the police party and was armed with 'lathi'. Jai Lal is also the main activist and RSSS members who threw stones. Kailash entered with confrontation with the police force obstructing the execution of the order of the High Court and in that activity he himself was injured. Similar is the role of Tej Parkash, Jeet Singh and Maan Singh.

Similarly circumstanced co-accused of the petitioners have been granted concession of bail by this Court.

Taking into consideration the period of detention and status of the trial i.e. no witness having been examined, the petitioners can be granted the concession of bail as challan in the present case had been presented long time back.

Without expression of any opinion regarding the role attributed to each of the petitioners, all the petitions are allowed. The petitioners are ordered to be released on bail on their furnishing bail bonds/surety bonds each to the satisfaction of the trial Court subject to the conditions that they will not indulge in any unlawful activity similar as attributed to them in the FIR during the entire period of trial and they will also not make any attempt to tamper with the evidence or delay the proceedings.
