.....Petitioner

versus

....Respondent

CORAM : HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE M.M.S. BEDI

Mr. Abinashi Singh, Advocate for the complainant/respondent No. 2.

M.M.S. BEDI, JUDGE (ORAL)

Learned counsel for the complainant has put in appearance and contested the petition contending that there are serious allegations against the petitioner in the private complaint. He has further submitted that the complaint filed by the complainant is not a counter blast to any complaint of the petitioner, as alleged.

After hearing learned counsel for the petitioner and complainant, taking into consideration the fact that the petitioner has already put in appearance before the trial Court, order dated 15.01.2016 can be confirmed.

Petition is allowed. It is ordered that petitioner will remain on bail against the bail bonds/surety bonds already furnished pursuant to the interim order, subject to the conditions that petitioner will not in any manner hamper the further proceedings and will not delay the proceedings or absent himself without any sufficient cause during the course of trial.
