The instant petition has been filed under Section 482 of the Code of Criminal Procedure for setting order dated 30.11.2015 wherein the petitioner has been declared proclaimed offender for non-appearance in FIR No. 58 dated 10.6.2010. The petitioner contends that during the interregnum period, the matter has been compromised. A copy of the compromise dated 23.12.2015 is annexed as Annexure P/2.

Learned counsel for the petitioner urges that the petitioner may be permitted to join the trial while giving him protection against arrest.

Learned counsel for the respondent No.2 admits to the fact that the matter has been compromised and that all dues have been paid to the respondent and he will have no objection in case the arrest of the petitioner is stayed allowing him to approach trial court in order to have the impugned order set aside.

In view of the above statement made, this petition is disposed of with the direction that the petitioner be not arrested for a period of three months from today, giving him an opportunity to approach the trial court to have the order set aside, the matter having been compromised.

The petition stands disposed of accordingly.
