Learned counsel for the complainant has intervened to oppose the application for pre-arrest bail contending that the petitioner has concealed material facts but it has been admitted that pursuant to the interim orders, the petitioner has put in appearance before the summoning Court and has been granted the concession of interim bail.

In view of appearance of the petitioner having been secured, the petition is allowed. It is ordered that petitioner will remain on bail against the bail bonds already furnished, during the entire period of trial, subject to the condition that petitioner will not absent himself without any sufficient cause and will not in any manner, directly or indirectly, make any inducement or threat to any person or witnesses, acquainted with the facts of the case.
