Kuldip Singh, J. (Oral)

State has already submitted the reply. It is disclosed that the investigation has already been transferred to Incharge State Crime Branch, Kurukshetra and is being dealt with by the officer of Inspector rank under the direct supervision of Inspector General State Crime Branch.

It being so, the present petition has become infructuous. However, the State is directed to comply with its directions and the investigation shall be under the direct supervision of the Inspector General State Crime Branch.

The investigating officer shall make all efforts to complete the investigation within three months. If the police is unable to complete the investigation within said period, it shall be open to the police to file miscellaneous application before this Court seeking extension of time on the grounds to be mentioned in the said application.
