1. Whether Reporters of local papers may be allowed to see the judgment?
2. To be referred to the Reporters or not?
3. Whether the judgment should be reported in the Digest?

AJAY TEWARI, J. (Oral)

This petition has been filed under Section 438 Cr.P.C. for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner in case FIR No.111 dated Jagadhari, District Yamuna Nagar.

Learned counsel for the petitioner states that in the main case the petitioner was subsequently surrendered and has been released on bail and prays that in such circumstances the petitioner is entitled to anticipatory bail for the offence under Section 174-A IPC.

Learned Additional Advocate General has accepted the factual submission that the petitioner had surrendered and has been granted bail in the main case.

In these circumstances, without going into the merits of the case, I do not deem it appropriate to deny the concession of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

Resultantly, the petition is allowed. In the event of arrest of the petitioner, she shall be released on bail by the Investigating Officer subject to the conditions envisaged under Section 438(2) Cr.P.C.

The petitioner is directed to appear before the investigating officer on 15.07.2016 and on any other date as and when her presence is required. In case the petitioner does not appear before the investigating officer in the aforesaid manner the present petition would be deemed to have been dismissed.
