The grievance of the petitioner is that though at present, there is no complaint against the petitioner, but he is repeatedly being called to the Economic Offences Wing, Phase-1, Mohali by respondent No.2 and being harassed unnecessarily.

In these circumstances, without commenting on any complaint or allegations against the petitioner, the petition is disposed of with a direction to the respondent – State that in case attendance of the petitioner is required for the purpose of investigation, the provisions of Section 160 Cr.P.C. be complied with.
