In this second petition under Section 439 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, the petitioner has sought regular bail in case FIR No.167, dated 26.11.2013, registered under Sections 406, 409, 420 of the Indian Penal Code, at Police Station Ismailabad, District Kurukshetra.

The learned counsel for the petitioner contends that the petitioner has been falsely implicated in the present case. The dispute is of civil nature. The petitioner is in custody since 12.03.2014. Lastly, he states that co-accused have already been admitted to bail by the learned trial Court.

On the other hand, learned State counsel opposes the bail and states that the trial is at the fag end. Only two prosecution witnesses remains to be examined. The petitioner has not delivered agreed quantity of the custom milled rice entrusted to him in pursuance to the agreement dated 04.10.2012, even after extending the date of delivery.

Heard.

Considering the allegation of breach of trust against the petitioner that resulted into huge loss to the complainant and the fact that the trial is at the fag end, this Court feels that no case for bail is made out at this stage.

Dismissed.
