AJAY TEWARI, J. (Oral)

This is an application for the grant of interim bail for four weeks to the petitioner in case bearing FIR No.134 dated 12.02.2016, under Section 18 of the NDPS Act, registered at Police Station Civil Lines, District Karnal, on the ground of treatment of his wife. The trial Court had granted him permission to take her to the hospital in police custody one hour before the scheduled surgery. Learned counsel points out that the surgery could not be conducted as the wife of the petitioner was anaemic and the doctor had advised postponement by two weeks. Learned DAG states that on principle he would have no objection to the interim bail but their two concerns are that firstly, there is heavy recovery and, therefore, there is chance that the petitioner may abscond and secondly, period of four weeks seems to be excessive in the circumstances of the case.

Keeping in view the aforesaid facts I deem it appropriate to grant the petitioner interim bail for two weeks to the satisfaction of the trial Court/Duty Magistrate. The Court shall ensure such surety which would deter the petitioner from absconding.

Application stands disposed of.

Since the main case has been decided, the Criminal Misc. Application, if any also stands disposed of.
