

IN THE HIGH COURT OF PUNJAB AND HARYANA AT CHANDIGARH

(217)

CRM-M-23971-2016

Decided on: July 25, 2016.

Tara Chand

.... Petitioner

Versus

State of Haryana

..... Respondent

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE M.M.S. BEDI

Present: Mr. Vimal Kumar Gupta, Advocate, for the petitioner.

Mr. Vikas Malik, DAG, Haryana.

M.M.S. BEDI, J (ORAL)

The petitioner, as a member of unlawful assembly, is alleged to have caused injuries on the person of Samay, Ajay, Rakesh and Sohan armed with sharp edge weapons.

With the assistance of learned State counsel, I have gone through the nature of the injuries on the person of injured. Tejvir has suffered two injuries including grievous injury. Samay, Ajay and Rohan suffered one, two and three injuries respectively. The grievous injury is attributed to co-accused Arun who is stated to have not yet been arrested.

The petitioner has been in custody w.e.f. 26.03.2016. Challan has already been presented. The petitioner individually has not been attributed any grievous injury.

In view of the totality of the above circumstances, it is sufficient to observe here that the trial is likely to take a long time. No useful purpose will be served by keeping the petitioner in custody.

The petition is allowed. Petitioner is ordered to be released on bail on his furnishing bail bonds/surety bonds to the satisfaction of the trial Court subject to the condition that the petitioner, after his release, will not in any manner tamper with the evidence or hamper the further proceedings of the trial.
