.....Petitioner

Versus

State of Haryana

.....Respondent

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE A.B. CHAUDHARI

Present: Mr. Satbir Gill, Advocate for the petitioner.

Ms. Tanushree Gupta, DAG Haryana.

A.B. CHAUDHARI, J (Oral)

Heard learned counsel for the rival parties.

The co-accused was arrested who disclosed the name of the petitioner who had sold him 8 grams of Heroin.

Learned State counsel states that there is no other earlier or later offence against the petitioner.

Learned counsel for the petitioner states that it is being the first offence, the relief of anticipatory bail may be granted looking to the quantity of contraband. He further states that the petitioner would not, thereafter, indulge in committing such type of crime.

This is being the first offence and the petitioner being prosecuted on the basis of disclosure statement by the other accused, I think he should be allowed the relief of anticipatory bail.

In that view of the matter, this petition is allowed.

Petitioner is ordered to be released on anticipatory bail upon his furnishing personal bail bonds amounting to ₹10,000/- with one surety of like amount. Petitioner shall join investigation, cooperate with the investigating officer and shall not tamper with prosecution evidence.
