IN THE HIGH COURT OF PUNJAB AND HARYANA AT CHANDIGARH

CRM-M-24447-2016

Date of Decision: 28.11.2016

Parvinder Singh

... Petitioner

Versus

State of Haryana.

... Respondent

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE INDERJIT SINGH

Present: Mr. P.S.Sekhon, Advocate, for the petitioner.

Mr. Vikramjit Singh, Addl. A. G. Haryana.

Mr. P.S.Sullar, Advocate, for the complainant.

INDERJIT SINGH, J.

Petitioner, Parvinder Singh, has filed this petition under Section 439 Cr.P.C for grant of regular bail in case FIR No.204 dated 16.06.2016, registered at Police Station Baldev Nagar, District Ambala, under Sections 406 and 420 of the Indian Penal Code.

Notice of motion was issued. Learned State counsel appeared on behalf of the respondent-State and complainant also appeared through his counsel. They contested this petition.

I have heard learned counsel for the petitioner; learned State counsel as well as learned counsel for the complainant and have gone through the record.

From the record, I find that vide order dated 15.09.2016, the petitioner was released on interim bail w.e.f. 15.09.2016 to 27.10.2016, subject to his furnishing personal bonds in the sum of ₹40,000/- with one surety in the like amount for the purpose that he might make the payment of remaining amount and effect the compromise.

The petitioner has already paid some of the amount which is stated to be cheated from the complainant. The interim bail was extended on the next dates. It has been brought into notice that on 16.11.2016, the petitioner did not make the payment of remaining amount, his interim bail was not extended and he was directed to surrender before the authorities concerned.

The conduct of the petitioner shows that he has misused the concession of interim bail granted by this Court for the purpose of making the payment to the complainant and for effecting the compromise. He has also not complied with the order passed by this Court to surrender before the competent authority after expiry of interim bail.

There are allegations against the petitioner that he has cheated the complainant to the tune of ₹12,50,000/- by inducing him to send his wife, Sarabjit Kaur, to Australia.

Keeping in view the facts and circumstances of the present case, nature and gravity of the offence; case is at the initial stage and there is every likelihood to tamper with the evidence, I do not find it a fit case where the petitioner is entitled for the benefit of regular bail.

Chief Judicial Magistrate, Ambala is directed to issue non-bailable warrants against the petitioner as well as get him arrested and send jail in this case. Report regarding arrest of the petitioner be sent to this Court.

Therefore, finding no merit in the present petition, the same is dismissed.
