..Petitioner

Versus

State of Punjab

..Respondent

CORAM: HON'BLE MR.JUSTICE JITENDRA CHAUHAN

Present: Mr. Vikas Bali, Advocate for the petitioner.

Mr. Luvinder Sofat, AAG, Punjab

Jitendra Chauhan, J. (Oral)

In this petition under Section 439 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, the petitioner has sought regular bail in case FIR No.27, dated 04.02.2016, registered under Sections 420, 417, 177, 193 and 120-B of the Indian Penal Code (for short 'the IPC') and Section 25 of Arms Act, at Police Station Jodhewal, Ludhiana.

It is contended that the FIR was lodged by the petitioner. The police under political influence and without a proper enquiry into the matter, planted the case upon him by stating that injuries suffered by him are self-inflicted. The petitioner is behind the bars since 22.06.2016.

On the other hand, the learned State counsel states that the injuries sustained by the petitioner are self suffered injuries with an iron bar, which is duly admitted by his servant Mani and gunman HC Om Parkash, who were with the petitioner at the relevant time in order to get the additional gunmen and escort vehicle.

Heard.

From the volunteer disclosure statements of the employee of the petitioner, namely Mani and gunman-HC Om Parkash which specifically contained that the injuries on the person of the petitioner were self-suffered in order to secure additional gunman and escort vehicle, which reflects on the mental make up of the petitioner, who as per the FIR has created this episode. Therefore, no case for bail is made out at this stage.

Dismissed.

Anything said herein above shall not be construed as an expression of opinion on the merits of the case.
