State of Punjab and another (arising out of S.L.P. Mr. A.S. Sullar, learned Addl. P.P., Chandigarh has put in appearance on behalf of respondent-U.T., Chandigarh and Mr. G.S. Gopera, learned Advocate has appeared for respondent No.4 and contested this petition.

I have heard learned counsel for the parties as well as learned Additional P.P. for respondent-U.T., Chandigarh and have gone through the record.

In view of the judgment passed by a Division Bench of this Court in Baldev Singh v. State of Punjab and another, Criminal Misc. No.M-40769 of 2014, decided on 2.6.2016, wherein it has been held that there can be no quashing of offence under Section 304-A IPC and subsequent proceedings solely on the basis of compromise arrived at between legal heirs/representatives of the victim (deceased) and the accused, I find no merit in this petition and the same is dismissed.

September 7, 2016.
