PARAMJIT KAUR

.....PETITIONER

VERSUS

STATE OF PUNJAB

.....RESPONDENT

CORAM:- HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE M.M.S.BEDI

Present: Mr.Amandeep Singh Rai, Advocate for the petitioner.

Ms.Harpreet Kaur Athwal, DAG, Punjab.

M.M.S.BEDI, J.(Oral)

The petitioner is alleged to have forged the Will of her father in order to grab a house which she later on transferred in the name of her son.

Learned State counsel opposed the application contending that the petitioner had not only committed fraud by forging a Will but she has also been convicted for having killed her sister with a motive to grab the property.

I have heard learned counsel for the parties and gone through the record.

So far as the allegations in the present case regarding forgery of Will is concerned, a suit is pending in the civil Court regarding authenticity of the Will. Irrespective of the conviction order having been passed against the petitioner in a case of murder of her sister, it is sufficient to observe that the petitioner is on bail during the pendency of the appeal against the conviction. She has been in custody in the present case w.e.f. 26.5.2016. All the recoveries have been effected. Prosecution seems to have not even asked for the police remand for her.

The petitioner, in the above said circumstances, can be granted the concession of bail as her judicial custody would not help the investigation in any manner.

In view of the above, the petition is allowed. The petitioner is ordered to be released on bail on her furnishing bail bonds/surety bonds to the satisfaction of the trial court.
