Mr. Vikas Chopra, learned Deputy Advocate General, Haryana has put in appearance on behalf of the respondent-State and contested this petition.

I have heard learned counsel for the petitioner as well as learned Deputy Advocate General, Haryana appearing for the respondent-State and have gone through the record.

As per the FIR, which was got registered by Amit Kumar on 21.2.2016, he came to know at about 3.30 p.m. that some unknown persons after entering into his shop, broken LED installed in the shop and broken furniture and glasses and also robbed 500-700 rupees kept in the drawer.

Therefore, keeping in view the facts and circumstances of the present case; without discussing the facts in minute detail and without expressing any opinion on the merits of the case, this criminal miscellaneous petition is allowed and the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail subject to his furnishing personal bond in the sum of ₹35,000/- with one surety in the like amount to the satisfaction of the trial Court/Duty Magistrate.
