JASPAL SINGH, J.(oral)

Instant petition has been preferred under Section 482 of the Code of Criminal Procedure seeking quashing of FIR No.156, dated 06.04.2012, under Sections 420, 406, 506, 452, 467, 468 and 120-B IPC, Police Station City Bahadurgarh, District Jhajjar (Annexure P-1), along with all subsequent proceedings arising out of the same, on the basis of compromise (Annexure P-3).

2. At the very outset of the arguments, learned counsel for the petitioners submits that she does not want to proceed with the instant petition so far as petitioners No.2 to 4 is concerned, at this stage and intends to withdraw the same.

3. Accordingly, petition qua petitioners No. 2 to 4 is dismissed as withdrawn, at this stage.

4. So far as petition qua petitioner No.1 is concerned, report of learned Judicial Magistrate in compliance of order dated 07.11.2016 has been received, in which, it has been categorically observed that statement of complainant-Prem Singh Chhikara and accused Suresh Tomar recorded to the effect that they have settled their disputes amicably without any pressure or coercion. The complainant has no objection in case, present FIR against the accused is quashed. Even otherwise, the matter involved is personal in nature, which has been amicably put at rest. Compromise is the soul of justice, which not only enhances the social amity, harmony and peace but also reduces friction and discord.

5. So, in view of above circumstances and in view of the pronouncement captioned as “Kulwinder Singh & others v. State of Punjab & others; 2007 (3) RCR (Criminal) 1052, I am of the considered opinion that continuation of criminal proceedings between the parties would be an abuse of the process of law and the present compromise is for their benefit and will bring peace and harmony between them.

6. Consequently, the instant petition stands allowed and FIR No.156, dated 06.04.2012, under Sections 420, 406, 506, 452, 467, 468 and 120-B IPC, Police Station City Bahadurgarh, District Jhajjar, and all other consequential proceedings arising therefrom are quashed qua petitioner No.1.
