Date of decision: November 07, 2016

Kamaljeet @ Kamal

.....Petitioner

Versus

State of Haryana

.....Respondent

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE A.B. CHAUDHARI

Present: Mr. A.S. Ahluwalia, Advocate for the petitioner.

Mr. Chetan Sharma, AAG Haryana.

A.B. CHAUDHARI, J (Oral)

Heard learned counsel for the rival parties.

In FIR No.38 dated 09.03.2016, under Section 392 of Indian Penal Code, 1860 (for short 'IPC') (Sections 397, 398 IPC added lateron), registered at Police Station Ding, District Sirsa, the petitioner is seeking regular bail. He was arrested on 02.06.2016 and is in Jail since then.

Admittedly, challan has been filed.

Learned State counsel was asked to find out whether the petitioner has any other similar kind of offence to his credit. Learned State counsel on instructions from police official, makes a statement that no other case is pending against the petitioner. The allegation is that the petitioner and other accused persons had given lift to the complainant in a Car and robbed for ₹5,500/- and a mobile phone.

Though the offence is serious, but looking to the fact that there is no other offence pending against the petitioner, I think the petitioner can be given one more opportunity to be at liberty by way of granting bail.

In that view of the matter, this petition is allowed. The petitioner be released on bail to the satisfaction of the Chief Judicial Magistrate/Duty Magistrate concerned. The petitioner shall not tamper with the prosecution evidence nor threaten the prosecution witnesses.
