

IN THE HIGH COURT FOR THE STATES OF PUNJAB AND HARYANA AT CHANDIGARH

(Sr. No.238)

RSA-1254-1998 (O&M)
Date of Decision:-19.12.2016

Shiv Ram

.....Appellant

V/S

Parkasho Devi Etc.

.....Respondents

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE DARSHAN SINGH

Present : Mr. Darpan Sachdeva, Advocate, for Ms. Alka Sarin, Advocate, for the appellant.

Mr. Anna Bansal, Advocate,
for Mr. R.L. Gupta, Advocate, for respondent No.1 and 2.

Darshan Singh, J. (Oral)

Learned counsel for both the parties states that as a result of amicable settlement between the parties the decree under challenge has already been executed and respondents have received the possession of house in dispute in execution of that decree. Consequently, the present appeal has been rendered infructuous.

So, the present appeal is hereby disposed of being infructuous.

However, the appellant will be at liberty to move an application for restoration of the appeal in case the appellant still has any grievance.

DECEMBER 19, 2016

pankaj

(DARSHAN SINGH)
JUDGE

Whether speaking/reasoned
Whether reportable

Yes/No
Yes/No