Kuldip Singh, J. (Oral)

Reply filed in Court on behalf of the State is taken on record.

Learned State counsel states that in fact it is a dispute between the family members. Petitioner No.1 is the wife of petitioner No.2. Petitioner No.2 is brother of respondent No.4. Both the parties are moving applications against each other. From the inquiry, no criminal offence is made out against any of the parties. Therefore, police will not interfere in the civil dispute of parties.

In view of the stand taken by the respondents, the present petition stands dismissed.
