Kuldip Singh, J. (Oral):

In the present petition, the petitioner seeks to invoke inherent powers of this Court under Section 482 Cr.P.C. for quashing the complaint No.88 dated 20.8.2005 (Anexure P-1) pending in the Court of Sub Divisional Judicial Magistrate, Amloh under Sections 419, 420, 467, 468, 471 IPC. The petitioner also seeks quashing of the summoning order dated 30.7.2013 (Annexure P-2).

I have heard learned Counsel for the parties.

In short, it has come out that the respondent-Society has filed a criminal complaint against the petitioner stating that the accused is the Chairman and Ex-Principal of G.R.S.D. Public School, Mandi Gobindgarh and that he is carrying a fake B.Ed. Degree and he had procured a forged degree alleged to have been issued by Varanaseya Sanskrit Vishwavidyala, Varansi. It comes out that the degree is of the year 1987 whereas the said University does not exist since 1974.

The allegations against the petitioner are not of getting any benefits out of the said degree, but holding a fake degree. The lower court, on the basis of preliminary evidence, has summoned the present petitioner. Therefore, exercising the revisional powers, there is no ground to quash the complaint or to set aside the summoning order. Let the matter be decided on merits by the concerned court.

However, it is noticed that the complaint is of the year 2005. Since then, 11 years have elapsed. The learned SDJM, Amloh is directed to expeditiously dispose of the case by granting short adjournments.

The petition stands disposed of with the above observations.
