CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE M.M.S. BEDI.

for the petitioner.

M.M.S. BEDI, J. (ORAL)

Petitioner claims that her husband has been falsely implicated and he has been granted bail by this Court accepting the arguments raised on behalf of her husband.

After hearing counsel for the petitioner, I am of the opinion that there is no scope for issuing any direction in the present case as challan has already been presented. The witnesses who supported the husband of the petitioner will have sufficient opportunity to prove the defence plea raised by the petitioner on behalf of her husband in the present petition. From the entire petition it does not appear that life and liberty of the petitioner requires to be protected as there does not appear to be any infringement of said liberty.

Disposed of with above observations without prejudice to the rights of the petitioner to approach this Court for protection of life and liberty in case there is any imminent threat to her.
