Notice of motion has been issued in this case. Learned State counsel has put in appearance on behalf of the respondent-State and contested this petition.

I have heard learned counsel for the petitioner as well as learned State counsel and have gone through the record.

From the record, I find that there is allegation against the jamabandi and produced it before the Court.

The petitioner has been in custody since 20.10.2015. He is not required for any investigation or interrogation purposes as he is in judicial custody. As stated by learned State counsel, 05 witnesses have been examined and 05 witnesses are still remained to be examined. The trial of the case will take long time. No useful purpose will be served by keeping the petitioner in custody till the final disposal of the case.

Keeping in view the facts and circumstances of the present case; without discussing the facts in minute detail and without expressing any opinion on the merits of the case, this criminal miscellaneous petition is allowed and the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail subject to his furnishing personal bonds in the sum of ₹50,000- with one surety in the like amount to the satisfaction of the trial Court/Duty Magistrate.
