The petitioner was released on interim bail vide order dated 14.10.2015 but complainant moved an application for cancellation of bail order on the ground that after releasing the petitioner on bail, he illegally threatened to the complainant that if she would not withdraw the case, she would be killed by him by throwing acid on her face. The complainant and her old aged mother were afraid with the accused/petitioner. In this regard, an FIR No.141 dated 15.03.2016 was registered against the accused by the complainant. Thereafter status report was filed , whereas, it was found that accused threatened the complainant and violated the terms of the condition of the bail.
