1. Whether Reporters of local papers may be allowed to see the judgment?
2. To be referred to the Reporters or not?
3. Whether the judgment should be reported in the Digest?

JASPAL SINGH, J.

Instant petition has been preferred under Section 482 of the Code of Criminal Procedure seeking quashing of FIR No.8, dated 17.01.2011, under Sections 323, 325, 427 and 341 IPC, Police Station Phillaur, District Jalandhar as well as all the subsequent proceedings arising therefrom, on the basis of compromise arrived at between the parties during the pendency of instant petition.

2. In compliance of order dated March 04, 2016, report of learned Judicial Magistrate has been received, in which, it has been categorically observed that the compromise effected between respondent No.2/complainant Harjinder Singh and petitioner/accused Jagjeevan Singh @ Jiwan Singh is genuine, voluntary and without any coercion or undue influence. Even otherwise, the matter involved is personal in nature, which has been amicably put at rest.

3. So, in view of above circumstances, I am of the considered opinion that continuation of criminal proceedings between the parties would be an abuse of the process of law and the present compromise is for their benefit and will bring peace and harmony between them.

4. Consequently, the instant petition stands allowed and FIR No.8, dated 17.01.2011, under Sections 323, 325, 427 and 341 IPC, Police Station Phillaur, District Jalandhar, Punjab and all other consequential proceedings arising therefrom are quashed qua the petitioner.
