FATEH DEEP SINGH, J. (ORAL)

In the light of contentions of the counsel of the two sides which is not controverted and rather conceded too at the bar by Mr. R.K. Handa, Advocate for the respondents that the matter in question be transferred and entrusted to the Courts of competent jurisdiction at Chandigarh, competent to try the matter under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act.

In view of the concurrence shown by the two sides, the instant petition is allowed to that extent whereby the Criminal Complaint No.7749 of 2014 titled as M/s. Avon Ispat & Power Ltd. Vs. M/s Precision Engg. pending before the Court of Sh. Sachal Babbar, Judicial Magistrate, 1st Class, Ludhiana is ordered to be transferred to Chandigarh Sessions Division with the direction to the Chief Judicial Magistrate, Chandigarh to either keep the matter with him or may transfer to appropriate Court in exercise of his powers.

The present petition stands disposed off accordingly.
