JASWANT SINGH, J (ORAL)

Prayer is under Section 438 Cr.PC for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners namely Jaspal Singh and Kulwinder Singh in case FIR No.76 dated 09.08.2014 for offences punishable under Sections 420 and 120-B of Indian Penal Code registered with Police Station Kheri Gandian, District Patiala.

As per allegations the accused father son duo had induced the widowed complainant and received a sum of Rs.2,83,000/- on the pretext of doubling her money.

Learned Counsel for the petitioner states that from the reading of the FIR no offence is made out as ingredients of cheating are not made out and at best only a recovery suit can be filed.

Learned Counsel for the complainant points out that the money was obtained on the pretext of investing it in a scheme floated by his relative for doubling the amount since it has not been shown as to which scheme existed, therefore, the intention throughout was to cheat the aged widow of the said amount.

Learned State Counsel assisted by ASI Chain Sukh Singh submits that although the petitioner has joined investigation, however, he is not cooperating in the same. He further submits that petitioner no.1 is involved in three other FIRs of cheating and petitioner no.2 is involved in one of the case. He further submits that investigation has come to a standstill due to non cooperation of the Petitioners.

In view of the nature and gravity of offence, no case for grant of anticipatory bail to the Petitioners is made out.

Dismissed.
