CRM-M No.3544 of 2016

Date of Decision:-09.02.2016

Surjit Singh.

.....Petitioner.

Versus

State of Punjab.

.....Respondent.

CORAM:- HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE JASWANT SINGH

Present:- Mr. Amaninder Singh Sekhon, Advocate for the Petitioner.

JASWANT SINGH, J (ORAL)

Prayer is under Section 438 Cr.PC for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner Surjit Singh in case FIR No.70 dated 31.10.2015 for offences punishable under Sections 324, 323 of Indian Penal Code and later on added offence under Section 326 IPC registered with Police Station Sadiq, District Faridkot.

Complainant-Sukhminder Singh, 77 years old is the real maternal uncle of the petitioner-accused.

As per the allegations when the complainant accompanied by his wife visited the house of present petitioner-accused to enquire about the health of Sadhu Singh, father of the present petitioner. He(petitioner) is alleged to have inflicted two injuries with his gandasa. The injury no.1 on the right thumb has been opined to be grievous in nature whereas the other injury below the left knee is simple in nature. There are allegations of having caused injuries to Baljit Kaur, wife of the complainant as well. The provocation was the grievance of the complainant regarding not taking good care of Sadhu Singh.

It is contended that whole incident has been fabricated at the instance of his real brothers Gurmeet Singh and Gurdeep Singh on account of father Sadhu Singh having bequeathed by Will his remaining share in favour of the son of the petitioner.

After hearing learned Counsel for the petitioner, the eye witness account and the report of the doctor cannot be ignored.

In view of the above, no case for grant of anticipatory bail is made out.

Dismissed.
