v.

State of Haryana

.....Respondent

CORAM: HON'BLE MR.JUSTICE JASWANT SINGH

Present:- Mr.Aman Bansal,Advocate for the petitioners

Jaswant Singh,J.(Oral)

Prayer is for grant of anticipatory bail on behalf of two petitioners, who are brothers,in case FIR No.84 dated 20.3.2015 under Sections 147,148,149,323,341,506,307 IPC, PS Rajendra Park, District Gurgaon.

As per allegations injured Gaurav and Sumer had suffered very serious injuries at the hands of unknown persons. Name of petitioners has surfaced in the investigation.

It is matter of record that one of the victims Gaurav received injury on the right temporal region and the other injured Sumer on the left parietal region.

Counsel for the petitioners heard at length.

It is matter of record that prayer for anticipatory bail on behalf of co-accused ladies namely Raj Bala and Savitri Bala was dismissed by this Court vide order dated 8.10.2015 on the basis of medical report dated 1.10.2015 in respect of injured Gaurav submitted by a Board of four doctors of General Hospital, Gurgaon. The relevant part of the said report reads as under:-

“On examination:-Patient was lying on the stretcher, urine passed in clothes, spontaneous eye opening is there. There is no response to verbal or painful stimuli. GCS (Glassgo Coma Scale)-E4V2M1=7/15, BP-120/80, PR-80 per minute. Chest bilateral clear. CVS S1S2 normal. There was hypertonia of the whole body with exaggerated reflexes.

In our opinion, patient is opening dye spontaneously but not oriented to time, place and person. There was no response to verbal commands and patient is not able to speak and communicated.”

In view of the above, no case for grant of anticipatory bail is made out.

Dismissed.
