... Petitioner

Versus

State of Haryana

... Respondent

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE INDERJIT SINGH

Present: Mrs. Sarla Chaudhary, Advocate, for the petitioner.

INDERJIT SINGH, J.

CRM Nos.34939 and 34940-2016

Allowed as prayed for, subject to all just exceptions.

CRM-M-39766-2016

Petitioner has filed this petition under Section 482 Cr.P.C. for grant of interim bail in case FIR No.82 dated 04.06.2007, registered at Police Station Farkh Nagar, District Gurgaon, under Sections 148, 149, 323, 324, 326, 452 and 506 of the Indian Penal Code on the ground that marriage of his niece (sister's daughter) is to be solemnized on 09.12.2016.

I have heard learned counsel for the petitioner and have perused the record.

From the record, I find that the petitioner has already been convicted by the trial Court; appeal preferred by him before the lower Appellate Court has already been dismissed and revision preferred by him before this Court has also been dismissed. No proceeding is now pending before this Court and conviction of the petitioner has become final. In such circumstances, question of granting bail/interim bail after conviction has become final, does not arise. The only remedy with the petitioner is to ask for the parole etc. which are to be granted as per law.

Learned counsel for the petitioner states that an application has already been filed with the Superintendent of Jail on this ground for parole, which has not been decided so far.

In view of above discussion, I find that this petition for interim bail is not maintainable and the same is dismissed being not maintainable. However, the petitioner is at liberty to approach the concerned Jail Superintendent for availing the appropriate remedy in accordance with law.
